

Claras Return (Stories of Lorst Book 2) by Suzanna J. Linton

The thrilling sequel to Linton's debut novel, Clara. Watch for traitors. Watch for giants. Watch for the shadow in your own mind. Clara, lost and disillusioned from the civil war, hopes to discover answers about her lineage and abilities in the quiet village of Bluebell, where she once lived before being sold into slavery. However, as she and the Captain of the Royal Guard make their journey, a new threat to the kingdom arises in the form of a traitor. Patiently brewing since the fall of the sorcerer-king Marduk, there are careful plans now coming to fruition. Riots break out, a giant is sighted, and double agents quietly take their places. King Emmerich's struggles with his new role and his ever-present nightmares leave him feeling inadequate to the task. What he needs most is Clara.
